St. John Ambulance and Cowichan Valley Training Centre Ltd join forces in Duncan

February 1 2017 (Vancouver, B.C.) – St. John Ambulance and Cowichan Valley Training Centre Ltd. are excited to announce their partnership in Duncan.

As of February 1 2017, Cowichan Valley Training Centre Ltd. will be taking over the St. John Ambulance (SJA) facility at Suite 205- 169 Craig Street Duncan B.C. Under the partner-provider agreement, the two organizations will be in partnership but will remain separate entities.

Through this partnership, our clients will receive the same great customer service and course offerings they currently receive from St. John Ambulance. Residents can also expect to receive solid expertise from Cowichan Valley Training Centre Ltd. as they share the same mission in delivering quality safety training to the community.

“This partnership presents a unique opportunity to better serve the local community,” shares Karen MacPherson, CEO of St. John Ambulance (B.C. and Yukon). “Our organizations are an excellent fit for one another and we look forward to a long and healthy partnership.”

Having been established in B.C. in 1911, St. John Ambulance has a long history and has continually evolved to meet the health and safety needs of B.C.’s communities. With family roots in Duncan, Ann & Cecil Saele of Cowichan Valley Training Centre make a great fitting partner for the organization.

About St John Ambulance
